Richland and the Tri-Cities area of Washington present an exciting opportunity for commercial property investment.

The intersection of Dallas Rd and Ava Way in Richland, WA, is a thriving gateway to the rapidly expanding Badger Mountain South community and the Country Mercantile market. This area is becoming a hub for residential and commercial growth, driven by new housing developments that attract families and professionals. The proximity to major roads makes it a strategic location for retail businesses and services, as well as offering scenic views and easy access to outdoor activities.

Richland, part of the Tri-Cities, is one of Washington's fastest-growing regions, known for its strong economic ties to the Hanford Site and Pacific Northwest National Laboratory. These institutions drive a demand for businesses that serve the area's professionals. With its strong infrastructure, family-friendly environment, and pro-business local government, the area around Dallas Rd and Ava Way is set to become a key commercial zone, offering a prime opportunity for businesses looking to benefit from Richland's continued growth.

- Home to 95,000 residents within a 5 mile radius.
- Access to 4,749 households within a mile, with a high walkability factor.
- Access to over 35,000 vehicles through I-82, Dallas Rd, and Reata.
- High purchase power; 42% of households within a mile have a yearly income exceeding $250,000.
- First and shortest TRI-CITIES highway stop for travelers from Pendleton/ Hermiston towards Seattle.
- Closest retail center with access to the valley community.
- Suites ranging from 1,209 to 10,636 Sq.Ft; providing opportunities for all business sizes.
